1: ARCHITECTURE

Pre-Fab Nuclear Power Plants

1. ALCO PRODUCTS, INC. Nuclear Power for Industry. New York: ALCO, n.d. [1954]. "Now as atomic energy becomes commercially feasible and may become competitive with conventional or fossil fuels ALCO has entered the power reactor field with a contract from the AEC for engineering and construction of a 'packaged' nuclear power plant." ALCO, before this misguided effort to kill us all, was the American Locomotive Company. With photographs of a model plant. $85.00

First edition. 4to; 10 pp.; illustrated. A very good copy in original pictorial wrappers.

2. BELL, DAVID H. [ed.], COLIN ROWE, MEREDITH CLAUSEN. Journal of Architectural Education: Fall 1985. Washington DC: Collegiate Schools of Architecture, Inc., 1985. This issue with Rowe's Address to the Annual Meeting on the fall of Modernist architecture, and Clausen on the Department Store. $25.00

First edition. 4to; 32 pp.; illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. A very good copy in wrappers.

3. B[ETHAN], E[RNEST]. Co-partnership in Housing: Being an Account of the Two HAMPSTEAD TENANTS' SOCIETIES from the Formation of the First in May, 1907. London: The Co-partnership Publishers Limited, n.d. [1909]. An analysis of the first years of Co-partnership housing at the Hampstead Garden Suburb. With an introduction by Raymond Unwin. $165.00

First edition. 8vo; pp. 32, 14 (ads); illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. Some occasional off-setting on pp. adjacent to plates; else a very good copy in original printed self-wrappers.

4. BIRMINGHAM CIVIC CENTER AUTHORITY. Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center National Architectural Competition. Birmingham: Birmingham Civic Center Authority, 1969. The heyday of the dreaded "Civic Center", your local cracked and stained spirit-crushing concrete monstrosity deep in a maze of one-way streets, surrounded by off-ramps and Interstates. Plans from 277 entries for the competition eventually won by George Qualls. (See also Item 34.) $50.00

First edition. oblong 4to; pp. vi, 314; illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. Owner's stamp (architect Der Scutti); some smudging to covers; else a very good copy in original white cloth without dust jacket, as issued.

5. DREXLER, ARTHUR. Modern Architecture U.S.A. New York: MOMA, 1965. Catalog for the 1965 MOMA exhibition surveying sixty-five years of modern architecture in the United States. Showing 69 buildings from the Unity Church to Victor Lundy's IBM buildings. Nothing remarkable here except perhaps the format; odd size and an obvious grid layout. $50.00

First edition. Slim 8vo; 36 pp.; illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. A very good copy in original wrappers.

6. (Finland) PALLASMAA, JUHANI et al. Museum of Finnish Architecture: 1956-1981. Helsinki: Museum of Finnish Architecture, 1982. 7. (Landscape Architecture) CLEVELAND, H. W. S. Landscape Architecture, as Applied to the West; with an Essay on Forest Planting on the Great Plains. Chicago: Jansen, McClurg & Co., 1873. While the concept of destroying the prairies with planted forests almost defines America, it was believed to be necessary to encourage settlement. The book nevertheless is "A seminal work on the developing profession of landscape architecture which received accolades from Olmsted and others; one of the first book-length works to clearly define the scope of the new profession [of landscape architecture]." Pioneers of American Landscape Design, p. 61. Cleveland's naturalistic work as a designer of cemeteries and urban park systems, especially for Minneapolis, has been largely overlooked. $675.00

First edition. 12mo; 147 pp. Minor wear to spine ends; insect wear to covers; light spotting to endpapers; else a good copy or better. Presentation copy, with compliments of the Author.

8. (Landscape Architecture) CHOPPIN DE JANVRY, OLIVIER & JEAN-MARC HEFTLER. Le Désert de Retz. Croissy Sur Seine: Société Civile du Désert de Retz, 1988. Six folders published by Carey with details and plans for an Urban School (Perkins & Will), Air Terminal (Kahn & Jacobs ((but not Idlewild))), Inland Port (Smith & Entzeroth), Sports and Civic Center (James & Harriss), Community Hospital (Shaughnessy, Bower & Grimaldi), Research and Development Plant (Baxter & Assoc.). $95.00

Six 4to folders containing one or two folding plans and detail sheets for representative projects. Some spotting; else good in original folders.

55. W. H. FAY & CO. Fay's Patented Water-proof Building Manilla used for Roofing and Covering the Outside and Inside of Buildings; Made also into Carpets and Rugs. Camden: W. H. Fay & Co., 1890.

Catalog for the W. H. Fay Co. of Camden, NJ, a manufacturer of a roofing and siding material called "Manilla", also suitable for walls and ceilings in place of plaster. Fay also uses Manilla to make rugs and carpeting. And the covers of its trade catalog. Plates showing houses and commercial and industrial buildings using the product. (Romaine p. 28) $175.00

Revised edition, originally published in 1887. 8vo; 32 pp.; illustrated from text-cuts and wood engravings. Small hole to front wrappers; short tears to a few leaves; else a very good copy in original pictorial wrappers made from company's product.

56. CHICAGO REAL ESTATE SHOW COMPANY. First Annual Real Estate and Builders' Show Official Program and Catalog. Chicago: 1911. Catalog for the show at the Chicago Coliseum. Mostly advertisements, and those mostly for real estate companies and investment services; still an interesting view of the industry's response to Chicago's growing population. $45.00

First edition. 8vo; 64 pp.; illustrated advertisements. A good copy in original pictorial wrappers.

57. THE INSULITE COMPANY. Insulite: Walls Ceilings Floors Roof. Minneapolis: Insulite Co., n.d. [c.1950]. Samples of company's product, wood fiber structural insulating board, displayed in a box and keyed to a cut-away drawing of a contemporary house. One sample lacking. $85.00

Illustrated cardboard box (11 x 7 inches) with 15 of 16 product samples; Soiling to box top; else a good set.

58. MARYLAND METAL BUILDING COMPANY. The Maryland Metal Building: Portable yet Permanent Made of Lyonore Metal. Baltimore: Maryland Metal Building Co., 1925. Catalog for the company's industrial manufacturing and storage buildings, as well as railroad buildings, boiler houses, service stations, private garages, portable schools, etc. $65.00

59. E. W. HOWELL CO. Noted Long Island Homes. Babylon: E. W. Howell Co., 1933. Trade catalog for this firm of Long Island builders. Showing exteriors and interiors of houses, clubhouses, etc. Includes work by Delano & Aldrich, Baum, Hart & Sharpe, Ferruccio Vitale, Polhemus & Coffin, Trowbridge, Cross & Cross, others. Interesting for a set of before-and-after pictures showing the shingle style clubhouse at the Timber Point Club remodeled into a colonial revival plantation house. $165.00

First Edition. Folio (25 x 33 cm); 124 pp. (printed recto only); illustrated from photographs. Owner's name; wear to overlapping edges of wrappers; else a very good copy in original gilt-stamped wrappers.

60. MARQUETTE CEMENT MANUFACTURING COMPANY. Building for the Future. Chicago: Marquette Cement Manufacturing Co., 1915. A very poor copy of a very nice and scarce catalog for this Illinois cement producer. A beautiful embossed cover with pyramids and Michigan Ave.; handsome photographs of Chicago buildings built with the product; midwestern grain elevators; etc. Sadly, pages stained, mostly marginal but very obvious, and not a pretty copy at all. But scarce enough with only two copies in OCLC that I must offer it, lousy condition and my so-called reputation be damned. $35.00

First edition. 8vo; 65 pp.; illustrated from photographs. A poor copy; staining to all pages. Complete; legible.

61. OMEGA PORTLAND CEMENT CO. Omega. Jonesville: Omega Portland Cement Co., n.d. [1901]. Pocket-sized catalog for this Michigan cement manufacturer, with instructions for using the product in sidewalks, factory floors, curbs, etc. Photographs showing the plant. $30.00

First edition. Narrow 12mo; 18 pp.; illustrated. A very good copy in original wrappers.

Rhode Island is Famous for You

62. F. P. SHELDON & SON. A Half Century of Achievement: A Book Commemorating the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Establishment by F. P. Sheldon, in 1870, of the Firm now Known as F. P. Sheldon & Son. Providence: F. P. Sheldon & Son, 1921. Trade catalog for this Rhode Island building firm specializing in factories, mills, foundries, warehouses and commercial buildings in RI and the northeast. With list of clients; treatises on saw-tooth roof design; sashes, etc. Good source for examples of late 19th – early 20th century industrial architecture. $175.00

First edition. 4to; 101 pp.; illustrated from photographs. Substantial tape repair to one leaf; apparent binding issues at one time but adequately repaired; a complete but fair copy only in original embossed wrappers with color illustration affixed to front wrapper.

63. WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC ELEVATOR COMPANY. Westinghouse Elevators. New York: Westinghouse, n.d. [1932]. A technical and operating manual for the company's elevator systems showing apparatus including motors, hangers, controllers, some call buttons, floor indicator panels, hall lanterns, etc., but mostly operating machinery. With an 80 pp. section of perspective illustrations of forty new buildings using Westinghouse elevators. $250.00

4: PLANNING

64. (Barcelona) MARTORELL, BOHIGAS, MACKAY, PUIGDOMENECH. The Olympic Village. Barcelona 92: Architecture. Parks. Leisure Port. Barcelona: Editorial Gustavo Gili, 1991. A second volume in the documentation of the transformation of a Barcelona district into an Olympic Village; this volume showing the new parks and public spaces, the Olympic Port, and the new architecture built for the 1992 Olympics. $75.00

First edition. Square 4to; 192 pp.; illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. Crease to front cover; else a very good copy in original wrappers. Text in English and Catalan.

Nearly picked clean; even the 200 lb. manhole covers are shipped here to sell for $7,000+

65. (Chandigarh) KUMAR, ANIL et al. Chandigarh: Forty Years After Le Corbusier. Amsterdam: Architectura & Natura Quarterly, n.d. [2006]. A catalog for a Dutch exhibition documenting the city's development over forty years, highlighting the efforts of Stichting Samenwerkingsproject India-Nederlands to present an account of urban life in Chandigarh and the relationship between the population and the city's architecture. $75.00

First edition. 4to; 69 pp.; illustrated from 150 photographs and reproductions of Corbusier's plans. A fine copy in original wrappers.

66. (Kansas City) GARFINKEL, ARNOLD. A Real Estate Opportunity for Developers & Investors: Central City District, Kansas City, Missouri. Kansas City: The Author, 1976. A proposal for a mixed residential and commercial development project on Quality Hill in KC's central business district. The over-educated Garfinkel, who expresses himself in all caps and likes to use the word "bonified", is happy to throw out uncooperative elderly homeowners with the help of "CONDEMNATION UNDER A STATE OR FEDERAL RENEWAL PROGRAM". This plan went nowhere; according to Wikipedia all of Garfinkel's accumulated housing stock mysteriously burned down. An interesting piece for its images of Quality Hill. Incidentally a catalog of every bad typeface designed in the 70's. $85.00

First edition. Oblong 4to; 18 pp.; illustrated from photographs, plans, and drawings. A very good copy in original plastic comb-bound wrappers.

67. (New York) FORD, GEORGE B. New York City Building Zone Resolution: Restricting the Height and Use of Buildings and Prescribing the Minimum Sizes of Their Yards and Courts with Explanatory Notes that Will be Helpful to Owners, Builders and Architects. New York: New York Title and Mortgage Company, 1920. A zoning guide for Manhattan published the NYT&M Co. to help developers and architects interpret the 1916 resolution which divided the city into districts for the purpose of regulating the heights of buildings, the area of courts and open spaces, and the location of trades and industries. Originally published in 1917; this edition revised and expanded with Amendments to January, 1920. With maps of Manhattan, Brooklyn, and the Bronx. $95.00

Second edition, revised. 4to; 30 pp.; illustrated with maps and diagrams, including six colored double-paged maps. A good copy in original gilt-stamped red cloth.

Staten Island: Blighted Cultural Backwater or...
International Foreign Trade Zone?

68. MAGNUS, PERCY M. City of New York Foreign Trade Zone Staten Island: Description and Summary. New York: New York Board of Trade, Inc., 1935. A proposal for the creation of a Foreign Trade Zone at Stapleton, S.I. With map of harbor, sketch of proposed piers, charts, etc. A highlight: "Opportunities for smuggling and defrauding the Revenue will be reduced to the minimum..." which would be the minimum acceptable to the mobsters, corrupt union officials, and community standards of Staten Island. $50.00

First edition. 4to; 21 pp. duplicated typescript; illustrated from map and chart; a very good copy in staple-bound file folder with label to front cover.

69. (Netherlands) DEELSTRA, TJEERD et al. Beyond Shelter: In Search of a Better Living Environment. Amsterdam: Visual Arts for Abroad, 1976. Booklet for an exhibition at the 1976 Venice Biennale surveying improvements in city planning in the Netherlands, based on the concept that good living environments go beyond shelter. $30.00

First edition. 4to; 15 pp.; illustrated from photographs. Spine beginning to split; light wear to corners; a good copy in original self-wrappers.

70. (New York) Skidmore, Owings & Merrill / Downtown-Lower Manhattan Association, Inc. Lower Manhattan: Recommended Land Use – Redevelopment Areas – Traffic Improvements. New York: Downtown-Lower Manhattan Assoc., Inc., 1958. The first report of this group headed by David Rockefeller, dedicated to the interests and welfare of lower Manhattan. In brief, the Association supports the Lower Manhattan Expressway, lots and lots of "redevelopment", finding a solution to the problem of the existence of the Fish Market, and of course better helicopter service. Still a great survey of this part of the city with aerial photos, statistics on heights, ages, and construction of buildings, information on the major deceased fish and produce markets, etc. $95.00

First edition. 4to; 48 pp.; illustrated from photographs and maps. Rubbing to front cover; else a very good copy in original wrappers.
